GOETHE UNIVERSITÄT FRANKFURT AM MAIN

Nomination for the Goethe International Science Diplomacy Award 2026

Only academic hosts employed at Goethe University are eligible for nomination.

All members of Goethe University, including affiliated international scholars and guests, may submit nominations. Academic members of higher-level research associations that include Goethe University may also submit nominations. Self-nominations are not accepted.

Nominations are welcome in German or English and should be submitted before April 15, 2027, to:
Stiftung-ibz@uni-frankfurt.de
Prof. Dr. Jürgen Bereiter-Hahn (chairman of the board of Trustees)

Nomination form

Name of nominee:

Institution, Adress:

Name and Home Adress of the nominator:

Adress in Frankfurt M.:

What is your relationship to the nominee?

What are the nominee's merits with view to the Goethe International Diplomacy award?

Examples are:

- Networking between Goethe University and international research institutions in difficult countries or regions of crisis
- Special commitment to academic freedom and/or scholars at risk
- Promotion of intercultural exchange and/or socio-political dialogue with international guests during their stay in Frankfurt
- Innovative involvement of international scientists in research and teaching projects and/or publications (also virtual) ecc.
- Organisation of exceptional international scientific conferences and workshops at Goethe University
- Ecc.pp – we encourage nominations on exceptional grounds!

Personal comment/additional remarks: